LB 131
LR 8

is, whatever day it is, to give us his address for the beginning of the session. So we'll have an interesting week next week, however it will not be long days. Every day we start at ten. So, with that, Mr. Chairman, if the Clerk doesn't have anything at the proper time Senator Baack has some words of wisdom for us.

PRESIDENT: Did you wish, Mr. Speaker, to go into the discussion of more amendments to the rules yet this morning, or dispense with it? Very well. Now then do you have further things for the record, Mr. Clerk? Senator Baack, did you wish to have a point of privilege? Oh, we are not quite ready for you then. Just a minute. Thank you, Dennis. Clerk has matters for the record.

CLERK: Mr. President, I have a new resolution. (Read LR 8, refer to pages 119 and 120 of the Legislative Journal.) That, as a constitutional amendment, will be referred to the Reference Committee, Mr. President.

One new bill, Mr. President. (Read LB 131 by title for the first time. See pages 120 and 121 of the Legislative Journal.) That, too, will be referred to the Reference Committee, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Thank you. Chair recognizes Senator Baack.

SENATOR BAACK: Mr. President, I move we adjourn until 10:00 a.m., Monday, January 14.

PRESIDENT: You've heard the motion to adjourn until ten o'clock tomorrow morning. All those in favor say aye. Opposed no. Motion carried. We are adjourned until 10:00 a.m., January 14.
